Part I Writing (30 minutes)

Directions: For this part, you are allowed 30 minutes to write on the topic Changes in the Way of Communication. You should write at least 120 words but no more than 180 words.

范文：

In the past few decades, we have witnessed remarkable changes in the way of communication, which have profoundly influenced our daily lives.

In the past, people mainly relied on letters and landline telephones to communicate. Writing a letter was a time-consuming process. You had to carefully choose the words, put them on paper, and then wait for days or even weeks for a reply. Landline telephones, although faster, were limited by the physical location. You could only make calls when you were at home or in the office.

However, with the rapid development of technology, especially the widespread use of the Internet and smartphones, communication has become much more convenient and instant. Now, we can use various social media platforms like WeChat and WhatsApp to send messages, make voice and video calls anytime and anywhere. These new ways of communication not only save time and money but also enable us to stay in touch with friends and family across the globe easily.

In conclusion, the changes in the way of communication have brought about great convenience and enriched our lives. We should embrace these changes and make the most of them.

在过去的几十年里，我们见证了沟通方式的显著变化，这些变化深刻地影响了我们的日常生活。

过去，人们主要依靠信件和固定电话进行交流。写信是一个耗时的过程。你得仔细斟酌用词，把它们写在纸上，然后等待数天甚至数周才能收到回复。固定电话虽然速度更快，但受物理位置限制。你只能在家或办公室打电话。

然而，随着科技的飞速发展，尤其是互联网和智能手机的广泛使用，沟通变得更加便捷和即时。现在，我们可以使用各种社交媒体平台，如微信和WhatsApp，随时随地发送信息、进行语音和视频通话。这些新的沟通方式不仅节省了时间和金钱，还让我们能够轻松地与世界各地的亲朋好友保持联系。

总之，沟通方式的变化带来了极大的便利，丰富了我们的生活。我们应该接受这些变化，并充分利用它们。
