黑龙江不明坠落物确认为载火箭或卫星残骸

An unidentified flying object falling from the sky and landing in Heilongjiang province on Friday.

北京—当局已确认黑龙江不明坠落物为运载火箭或卫星残骸。

BEIJING - Authorities have identified objects that fell into Northeast China's Heilongjiang province as parts from a carrier rocket or a satellite.

Experts in the province have conducted analysis to identify the objects and the authorities are communicating on the issue with relevant parties, said a statement from the China National Space Administration on Sunday.

The province's city of Tsitsihar reported several unidentified objects which appeared to have fallen from the sky on Friday.
