中国紫檀博物馆：价值不菲的木雕和家具

A museum in east Beijing specializes in the most luxurious type of wood carving: red sandalwood. At the China Red Sandalwood Museum, this precious type of wood is used to depict various symbols of Chinese culture, making the museum a beacon of Chinese cultural heritage in Beijing.

China red sandalwood museum is located in the East of Beijing. It is China's first and largest private museum specializing in red sandalwood sculpture and furniture.

The museum's gate is an impressive wooden structure, built with traditional techniques, it was constructed under the guidance of experts from the Palace Museum.
